May

Honoring the Great Mother

By Rev. Mary Ann Kelley

As we give thanks for our life here on earth, we know that it is our mother that allows us to come through her, who nurtures us, cares for us, guides us, loves us, and so many more attributes that help form our view on life. Let us give thanks to the mothers for their tireless, selfless devotion to our upbringing.

As we head into May. Flowers are in full bloom and summer is just around the corner. I love May because it is the time we honor our Mothers.

My mother was born on an Easter Sunday, March 31, 1918. She was the baby of 9 children. 8 girls and 1 boy. She asked my grandmother one time why she had had so many children and my Grandmother said "you young lady better be giving thanks to God that I did or you wouldn't be here to ask that question."

My mom and dad were high school sweethearts. They eloped 6 weeks before my mother graduated from high school, my dad having graduated the year before. My mother finished high school and went right to work on the farm alongside my dad hoeing beets, picking beans, cutting potatoes or whatever was needed to be done. They were partners.

My mother was an energetic, soft spoken woman who adored my dad and me. When my mother carried me she was confined to bed the last 4 month of the pregnancy. When I was born I was the first in all our family to be born in a hospital and I was considered a miracle baby. I was an only child for 14 years until my brother was born.

I learned so many things from my mom. She taught that God is love. She taught me how to love. For all her love I am so grateful.

Happy May

Kayla Rose

A mother's love for her child is like nothing else in the world. It knows no law, no pity, it dares all things and crushes down remorselessly all that stands in its path.

Let those of us who have children give thanks for the honor of being a parent. Those of us who have been teachers of children, be grateful for the honor of parenting them while they are in our care. Let us all give thanks for the gift of intuition, that we receive from our wonderful Inner Christ. In all things, let us give thanks! And so it is.

Love and blessings,

By Rev. Mary Ann Kelley

Before I Became Your Mother

I never knew... how happy I would feel when you smile,
I never knew... how sad I would feel
when you cry,
I never knew... how heartwarming
it would be to watch you grow,
I never knew... how much love
my heart could hold,
And now...
I will always know.

You deserve to BE HAPPY. You deserve to live a life you feel HAPPY about – NEVER allow others to make you forget that.

Do MORE of what MAKES you HAPPY.

Setting Goals – Springing into Action!

The best way to move forward and meet the goals you set for yourself? Keep one eye looking back. Remembering where we came from is an important part of committing to an active, healthy life. And those thoughts are even more important when the attention our determination begins to fade. As you (and others!) begin to accept your new outlook on life, that's when it becomes tempting to slip into old habits.

"When you're no longer focusing on how important your goals are to you, that's when you might start to get sloppy about keeping on track.

How can we celebrate the great successes in our life unless you also appreciate the failures and what you've learned from them."

Try using the following as reminders of your own journey:

- At least once a week, admire the steps that you have taken toward achieving your goal. Tell yourself how much better you feel about what you have done, how much closer you are to achieving your goal, and how much better the clarity is on how to achieve that goal. There may be steps that you change as you gain more clarity.
- Celebrate the anniversary of reaching your goal.
- Keep a journal of small successes. Log such accomplishments as, "I joined Weight Watchers today," or "I bought pants two sizes smaller today."
- Identify your supporters and your saboteurs. We want to hang out with people who uplift us, avoid the saboteurs.
- Ask for feedback. Graciously accept the positive commentary and commit it to memory, so you can mentally call upon that warmth when you need it later.

I used Weight Watchers because that is my example. It feels great when people look at me and ask me, "Have you lost weight?" I can respond, saying, "Yes, thanks for noticing."

 T.I.C. Is Here For You

An Inner Christ Counseling (ICC) assists you in contacting your Inner Christ, clarifying your life purpose, and verifying your spiritual experiences.

An ICC is a channeling session with your own Inner Christ, assisted by two Inner Christ counselors. To schedule an Inner Christ Counseling (ICC), contact one of the ministers, leader teachers/Inner Christ counselors, or prayer therapists/ICC and an appointment will be arranged for you.

Prayer Therapy sessions assist you in clarifying your desires, healing false beliefs that cause problems in your life, and manifesting your good through prayer. The ministers, leader teachers and prayer therapists listed are available for interviews and prayer work by appointment.

The T.I.C. Prayer Circle is composed of ministers, leader teachers, and prayer therapists who meet weekly to pray for any person who requests prayer. Fill out a prayer request form and place it in the prayer box at our Center. A donation is appreciated and may be enclosed.
