AUGUST

Merging with Spirit

By Rev. Elaine Fuller-Zachey

When I first thought of putting together this month's plan, I channeled and here it is.

Go to the green place, the one that wraps Itself around you. Breathe in its chlorophyll sweetness, tinged with damp cool of early day. Look down at the grass and leaves to see tiny spider webs left by busy creatures. Dew has scattered pearls along the strands. Notice this; see it; feel it; Be It.

(cont. p. 3)

I came across a poem that really reminded me to be aware of my thoughts and spoken words and my actions with others. As we all know (but as humans sometime forget) thoughts are things and our words are powerful. Following is the poem I hope you enjoy it as much as I did.

Hugs Kayla Rose

PROMISE YOURSELF

- To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.
- To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.
- To make all your friends feel that there is something good in them.
- To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.
- To think only of the best, to work only for the best and expect only the best.
- To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.
- To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.
- To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.
- To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.
- To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.

Merging with Spirit (continued from cover)

We can go to green places that aren't feeding buildings, pavement, traffic and rushing around. We can go to green places and allow our Christ nature to merge with their Christ natures. We can expand into them and realize we are One with them. We can do this and heal ourselves of feelings of pulling, pressure and near panic of the world's divisive demands and seeming failures. We can be free and Christ aware.

Thank you dear Inner Christ for this message.

When I do this type of thing, meditation really, I am lifted into clarity. I then take that clarity back into my everyday life. I allow it to influence how I respond to the world's demands. The demands are still there, yet I am the one who is different. I perform daily tasks with renewed Christ awareness. Stress and confusion no longer prompts me to seemingly go around in circles. Instead I attend to one task at a time, then the next, then the next and maybe I make a list with Inner Christ guidance. I call on my Inner Christ to shine love and light into any situation I may encounter. I call on my Inner Christ to guide the situation itself and the people involved, including me.

Christ awareness and guidance leads us to happier, more balanced lives. Let's go to our own meditation place – a room at home, a park, or other place. Let's start our days with Inner Christ guidance. Let's thank God that this is so now.

With love and light,

Rev. Elaine Fuller-Zachey

Affirmation: I pray today for the courage to step forward and be a presence of peace, love, kindness and support.

DAILY MEDITATIONS are central to the Science of Mind philosophy: whatever a person believes is what he or she lives.

From the early 1940s until his passing in 1960, the teacher and philosopher Ernest Holmes personally created hundreds of daily meditations. Now, for the first time, the finest of these words that inspire, nurture, and revitalize the fabric of our lives are collected in one volume. Augmented by quotations from Scripture and the words of great philosophers through history, these meditations will enrich every heart.
