Springing Forward

By Rev. Kayla Rose Carroll

February is a special month of love, while March is about new flowers springing forward. Here is an inspiring article, written by Jennifer Hadley, I found about a rose that I could really relate to. I wanted to share it with all of you.

“It is said that a rose blooming lifts the consciousness of all, regardless of whether or not anyone sees it. All acts of love, beauty and kindness are felt everywhere. I desire to be that blooming rose. I want to be that smiling, welcoming face, the warm heart and sweet voice that is the essence of Divine Love in the rose. (cont. p. 3)

March is here again and this is the month we “spring forward” and turn our clocks forward one hour... I love the time change. The days seem longer and they are filled with more light that lasts later. The spring flowers begin to come up. The air even seems to smell fresher.

I think it is a great time to remind ourselves to “spring forward”. Maybe to meditate on how to leave the rut we are seemingly stuck in. For me, sometimes, I outgrow a rut. But the rut seemed comfortable and familiar. Even though it no longer serves me, it seems hard to let it go.

I have choices as we all do. I can let go by being dragged, kicking and screaming or choose to let it go in a high spiritual conscious state.

From the high spiritual conscious state, I can spring forward into my next good.

On the other side of springing forward is more expansion and growth than I can imagine; and in the midst of it all is God!

So join me, if you choose, meditate on what is the right way for you and then spring forward into success -- it is safe. Spring forward into new relationships -- it is safe. Spring forward into bliss in your life -- it is safe. Spring forward into whatever you want, to all your heart’s desires. IT IS SAFE!

Love to All,
Kayla Rose

Springing Forward (continued from cover)

I love that the rose does not question its worthiness. I want to be that rose. I want to be the beauty that my soul's creator intends for me to be. I want to keep my agreement to be open and express that which is mine to express and to do it with gratitude and grace.

The rose does not fear that it is less beautiful than another. It does not compare itself or seek to hide for fear of judgment. The rose does not worry about needing too much water or too much sun. The rose does not fear that its radiance will be refused or rejected. The rose gives all of itself in every moment. I want to be that rose."

I too want to be that rose, how about you?

Affirmation: I am the smiling, welcoming face, the warm heart and sweet voice of Love.

Happy March. Enjoy the blooming of roses. Let the rose remind us to wear a smile, a welcoming face, a warm heart and sweet voice. That is the essence of Divine Love.

Hugs to all,

Rev. Kayla Rose Carroll

The Dynamic Laws of Prosperity

By: Catherine Ponder

The Dynamic
Laws
of Prosperity

By Catherine Ponder

The Dynamic Laws of Prosperity was Ponder's first book and can be considered her classic work, a carefully and compassionately written compendium of the secrets and techniques of prosperity. Following is a sample of her ideas.

Desire + visualization & affirmation = success

If you are an academic Bible scholar you may not agree with Ponder's interpretation of Biblical stories, but you will read this book for inspiration and for its quiet good sense about thinking prosperously. The Dynamic Laws of Prosperity may be one of the more unusual success classics, but could be the most valuable to you if you are willing of have an open mind. (The chapter on overcoming debt may alone justify the price of the book). Consider it a spiritual complement to the more 'nuts and bolts' books on financial success.
