Trusting the Process

By PT/ICC Jennifer Allen-Prather

Don't you sometimes wish that you could wiggle your nose like Samantha the witch on the TV show "Bewitched" and receive whatever it is that you are wishing for now? There have been times that I wanted a new car or a slimmer body or a different job and I wanted those things to happen immediately! Sometimes, if we really believe that we can be or have whatever we are wishing for immediately, it can happen that way (cont. pg. 3).

God gives each of us the opportunity to begin again, to choose anew our activities, our world view and our interactions.

So often we think we are choosing, when actually we are on automatic pilot. Instead of allowing our "Inner Pilot Light" to guide us, we slip onto the roads most traveled. Our Inner Pilot Light is always on and available in the silence of our hearts.

When we embrace the silence in prayer and meditation, it invites the Inner Self to hear what our soul is whispering.

When we choose to slow down and appreciate all the love and beauty that surrounds us, we bring even greater expression of love and beauty outpicturing in our lives. Whatever we are grateful for expands -- just as what we give energy to increases.

So...when we lift our heads off our pillows in the morning, let's choose all the vitality the day has to offer, with deep appreciation that we have awakened and have another great day to enjoy love, beauty and joy.

Hugs,

Rev. Kayla Rose Carroll

Affirmation: How grateful I am to recognize that all my needs are met. I choose this day life, love and appreciation. AND SO IT IS!

Trusting the Process (cont. from cover)

But for most of the time, for many of us, that does not happen and we have to WAIT for our desire to manifest.

This is where God comes in. God knows the way all things need to go for a harmoniously run Universe. God has the full picture and we don't. But sometimes I forget that fact and think that I am separate from God and I am the one in control of the process. Oh boy, that can get me in hot water sometimes!

Several years ago, in the early 1980's, I was working in a job that I disliked intensely. I disliked it so much that I caused my back to go out. I quit this job after only a few months not knowing how I was going to be supported. Where I was working was right next to a temporary employment service. I walked into that service, was taking a test, and right while I was taking that test, a call came in for a job in La Jolla and I got it right away. It just so happened at this time that Dr. Ann Meyer (later to be Dr. Ann Meyer Makeever) had offered me a job as executive secretary for the Teaching of the Inner Christ (T.I.C.). The position was in three months, and my temporary job in La Jolla was three months long.

I have since learned that I need to trust God's process, just as I trust that the sun will rise in the morning and a garden will produce food and flowers. Just because I can't see in advance what will happen to me, I know that I must trust the unfoldment or the process. Sometimes it may take a while for the manifestation to happen in the Universal "soup." This takes faith and patience.

I am so grateful every day for my association with the Teaching of the Inner Christ and I thank God for T.I.C. and the tools we learn in classes for healing, meditating and praying.

May we all grow in our awareness of God in our lives and trusting God's process as always unfolding for our best and highest learning.

Love and Light,

PT/ICC Jennifer Allen-Prather

Potluck Luncheon

October 20 – After service T.I.C. will be supplying cake and sandwiches – feel free to bring any other dishes.

The Oneness Kirtan Band from Orange County will again be playing at the Awareness Day Celebration on Oct. 20th!

Kirtan is the ancient art of singing as meditation. It is based on mantras that have strong energetic and vibrational components and serve as a bridge to higher consciousness. Kirtan is a very simple and powerful way to meditate. It's effortless and joyful: the music does the work for you. Kirtan is a means of finding our way back to the core of our Being, to our hearts, and to our connection with all of Life.

The Oneness Kirtan Band will be giving us the experience of kirtan music and sharing chants created especially for T.I.C.!

This is such an AWESOME way to celebrate Awareness Day!!
