March, 2020 Let It Be By P.T./I.C.C. Jennifer Allen-Prather

This sentence above comes from the song "Let It Be" by Paul McCartney of the band, the Beatles. As Paul stated in an interview, "I was going through a really difficult time around the autumn of 1968. It was late in the Beatles' career and we had begun making a new album, a follow-up to the 'White Album.' As a group we were starting to have problems. I think I was sensing the Beatles were breaking up, so I was staying up late at night, drinking, doing drugs, clubbing, the way a lot of people were at the time. I was really living and playing hard. One night, somewhere between deep sleep and insomnia, I had the most comforting dream about my mother, who died when I was only 14 (continued on p. 5).

March is here again the month we "spring forward" and turn our clocks forward 1 hour. The time change happens this year on Sunday, March 8 at 2:00am. I love the time change. Not at 2:00am you understand. However, the days seem longer and the days are filled with more light that lasts later. The spring flowers begin to come up. The air even seems to smell fresher.

I think it is a great time to remind ourselves to "spring forward". Maybe to meditate on how to leave the rut we are seemingly stuck in. For me sometimes I outgrow a rut. But the rut seemed comfortable and familiar. Even though it no longer serves me, it seems hard to let it go.

I have choices as we all do. I can let go by being dragged, kicking and screaming or choose to let it go in a high spiritual conscious state.

From the high spiritual conscious state I can spring forward into my next good.

On the other side of springing forward is more expansion and growth than I can imagine; and in the midst of it all is God!

So join me if you choose, and meditate on what is the right way for you and then spring forward into success knowing it is safe. Spring forward into new relationships it is safe. Spring forward into bliss in your life it is safe. Spring forward into whatever you want, to all your heart's desires. IT IS SAFE!

Love to all, Rev. Kayla

Let It Be (continued from cover)

So in this dream twelve years later, my mother appeared, and there was her face, completely clear, particularly her eyes, and she said to me very gently, very reassuringly: 'Let it be.'

It was lovely. I woke up with a great feeling. It was really like she had visited me at this very difficult point in my life and gave me this message: Be gentle, don't fight things, just try and go with the flow and it will all work out.

So, being a musician, I went right over to the piano and started writing a song: 'When I find myself in times of trouble, Mother Mary comes to me'... Mary was my mother's name... 'Speaking words of wisdom, let it be.' 'There will be an answer, let it be.' It didn't take long. I wrote the main body of it in one go, and then the subsequent verses developed from there: 'When all the broken-hearted people living in the world agree, there will be an answer, let it be.'

Not very long after the dream, I got together with Linda, which was the saving of me. And it was as if my mum had sent her, you could say.

These days, the song has become almost like a hymn. We sang it at Linda's memorial service. And after September 11 the radio played it a lot, which made it the obvious choice for me to sing when I did the benefit concert in New York City. Even before September 11th, people used to lean out of cars and trucks and say, 'Yo, Paul, let it be.' So those words are really very special to me, because not only did my mum come to me in a dream and reassure me with them at a very difficult time in my life – and sure enough, things did get better after that – but also, in putting them into a song, and recording it with the Beatles, it became a comforting, healing statement for other people too."

We, too, can tune into our Inner Christ and be comforted knowing that we are receiving comfort and healing anytime we call on Spirit and "Let it be."

Love and Light,

P.T./I.C.C. Jennífer Allen-Prather
