*"But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them,
With men this is impossible; but with God
all things are possible." Matthew 19:26*

In God All things are possible. This scripture leaves limitless possibilities open for us. Jesse Jackson paraphrased this bible quote, stating, "If my mind can conceive it, my heart can believe it, I know I can achieve it!" Know that it is possible to experience what you desire.

This, of course, leaves me with a dilemma, a situation in which a difficult choice has to be made between two or more alternatives - difficult especially if they are equally desirable ones.

Another one of my challenges has been the word "can't". The challenge is in overcoming my own doubts and fears. When people say to others or themselves, "You can't", they are expressing their own lack of faith and spiritual belief.

When doubts become overwhelming, it has helped me to give the doubt a name. I named my doubt the "saboteur" at this point. Then I make a decision, between accepting the sabotaging thoughts or accepting my true feelings and beliefs about my desired outcome. This, of course, is where the healing begins with faith and prayer.

With my faith and prayer, I must convince myself that what I desire is possible for me, then I can either experience it inside or outwardly hold it in my hand, for others to see.

In order to achieve, we must eliminate inner sabotaging thoughts and awaken a motivating desire to choose positive feelings and hold a belief in unlimited good. Affirm: "I Ask, I Believe, I Receive!"

Love, Earl Spurlin, PT/ICC
