June 2020

"If you but ask for more love to pour through you, then I and the Many and God pour that love to you as if through a funnel - right into the troubled waters, straight into the ring of fire, into the center of the hate, the pain, the misery. You are never alone, for all of God is always with you and in you."

The Heart of God channeled messages from Jesus

As I look out the window of my office into my back yard, I realize how privileged I am in this extraordinary time to be in a home, in a quiet place, without working or raising children. I have choices, and I can put on my mask and go for a walk. I can listen to news, music, books. I can bake, garden, create, write, reach out to others by phone or with the electronic tools available to us.

As we in solidarity navigate these days, I am reminded of the beginning of Charles Dicken's novel, A Tale of Two Cities. "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness...it was the season of light, it was the season of darkness..."

I consider a spiritual life as essential to permit God's perfect idea of us to manifest, to flow forth into expression, to bring wisdom and light into our daily lives. What is essential? The Oxford Dictionary defines essential as "absolutely necessary; extremely important."

We lay the foundation of this necessary and extremely important spiritual life with prayer. Prayer provides us the time to explore and understand our personal relationship with our God Self. Our connection to that innermost Divine nature is creative. It changes our thoughts from I can't, I should, I must to I can, I want to, I will.

Where is that Divine nature in your life at this moment? Look around you and look inside you. Let us put a little love in your life.

The Teaching of the Inner Christ is here for you. If you are in a dark place, reach out to us for spiritual counseling and prayer. Explore your relationship to your I Am self with me or one of our Prayer Therapists. We are available to you to receive prayers, bring light and wisdom into your day. Please, join us via Zoom for worship on Thursday or services on Sunday.

Love and Light,
Rev. Vicki Walker
