REBIRTH and RENEWAL

Here we are heading into Spring. The dark of winter seems to be dissolving for us as a community too in this long, hard trial with COVID-19. I just read in a local paper that the elementary school kids will be heading back to school March 29th. We may be turning the corner on this, as more and more people are vaccinated.

I recently took Maureen Welborn's "I AM THE WORD" book study course. There's a chapter on trials toward the end of the book. It states: "... A trial, in some ways, is an opportunity for rapid growth. And when you call to you a situation that requires you to respond to it in a way that feels like an ordeal, that feels like you have to contend with a trial, you are actually moving forward very quickly if you teach yourself through the process of the ordeal or trial what the true messages are.

I have been going through a most unusual trial myself for a number of months. It has helped me to build a stronger faith. It's helped me to know that I'm always divinely protected. It's helped me to accept and acknowledge my own talents and abilities. It's made me believe in myself more. And lastly, it's shown me that God works in mysterious ways sometimes. I realize in a deeper way that with God— All Things Are Possible. The miraculous is real.

As we move into Spring with a sense of rebirth and renewal, let's rejoice that the Law of Good is working so wonderfully in our lives!

With love,
Elizabeth Yacoubian. LT/PT/ICC
