Springtime in Paris

I had the great fortune to spend a week in Paris recently. Paris is undoubtedly one of the most beautiful cities in the world. The gorgeous gardens were in bloom and the ornate architecture of the buildings dated back centuries in some cases. The quaint cafes with their colorful umbrellas were bustling with people. So much culture, so much history. The Arc de Triomphe and the Champs Elysees, Notre Dame Cathedrale, Montmartre, Sacre-Coeur and on and on. . .

There is so much wonder and beauty in the world. Met some great, loving French people! Had so much fun. It was invigorating, renewing and joyful! Spring is a time of renewal, clearing out and moving free!!!

In the words of Ernest Holmes: "As we surrender all littleness, and all fear and doubt, that great river of Life flowing from the Mind of God will renew our vigor, re-make our strength, ennoble our being, heal our bodies, and bring peace to our hearts."

A Happy, Blessed Spring to All!
