October 2017

A faulty presupposition about “something” which causes a lack of clarity in awareness!
L.S. Barksdale, Building Self-Esteem

Applied spiritual awareness produces personal growth and enlightenment. I love the way author, L.S. Barksdale, defines awareness as being, “how clearly we perceive, understand and evaluate, both consciously and nonconsciously, everything that affects our lives.”

For example human emotions - each of us is responsible for our own emotions and for the way in which we respond to life's situations. By becoming aware of our own spiritual nature, we add great value to human life. Teaching of the Inner Christ (TIC) Awareness Day is celebrated each year in October. We celebrate the time when the concepts of TIC were first revealed to our founder, Dr. Ann Meyer Makeever.

In her book, Who Is With Me?, Ann describes the beginning of her paranormal experience this way: "The date of October 19, 1962, is forever indelibly engraved in my mind. That morning, around eight o'clock, after I had seen Barry and Kathy off to school, my husband, Bill, off to work, and finished washing the dishes, I walked into the living room. Suddenly I had a strange feeling that I was not alone. Someone else, someone I could not see, was with me in that room! I cried out in this "empty" room, 'Who is with Me?' Who is with me, in this room? Hey you, whoever you are, what do you want with me?"

Instead of becoming fearful and running away from her unique experience, Ann was willing to explore that feeling more deeply. As a result, her courage has brought great insight, enlightenment, and awareness to our world and to thousands of TIC students over the past 55 years!

Over the past 31 years, I have gained greater spiritual insight, more enlightenment, and expanded spiritual awareness! I call it Progressive Transformation!

Join us on Sunday, October 15, at 10:30 a.m. as we celebrate the awareness of our conscious contact with our Inner Christ.
