Once Jesus was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming, and he answered, "The kingdom of God is not coming with things that can be observed, nor will they say, 'Look, here it is!' or 'There it is!' For, in fact, the kingdom of God is (within) among^[h] you." Luke 17:20

I have found as I grow older that I am able to live in the "present moment" more and more and more letting go of regrets from the past and worries about the future.

As mentioned in the bible quote above, Jesus said, "we should live as though the kingdom were already ours". As above, so below is a popular paraphrase, meaning "whatever you do in the physical world will reflect itself in the spiritual realm."

A few years ago, I would often start my day out with the saying; "This is the day that the Lord hath made. Let us rejoice and be glad in it."

One thing about living in the present—you can "Stop & Smell the Roses." Literally and figuratively. I used to walk on the boardwalk on the Peninsula in Long Beach, CA. One house had a bunch of roses in front of it, and I'd always stop and smell the roses—yellow, pink,

There is such beauty in the trees, flowers and plants. Beauty in the crashing waves. Beauty in a mountain meadow. Beauty in a desert sunset.

The other day, I felt a wonder at how God created each person so uniquely—they look different with different qualities and talents. Marvelous!

Enjoy the rest of the summer,

Liz Yacoubian, L.T.
