"Therefore I say unto you, what things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them." KJV, Mark: 11:24

Bring on the new year, 2022!

In numerology, 2022 means "Hope is Ahead." As we learn to unlock our inner power, we will be amazed at how simple life can become. To walk away from difficulties, challenges, or darkness, we must see the light in everything. The more light-focused we are, the easier it is to accept and understand how thought demonstrates in our experience. The apostle Mark calls us to pray believing. Our thoughts are prayers.

The quote conveys to me that all things that I ask in prayer, believing, I shall receive it. As we prepare to pray, it is essential to know exactly what we desire as an outcome, accept that possibility, and then take the action of asking. The Divine Mind is always listening, and our own I Am Self is available to provide guidance, inspiration, and solutions as we ask. Deriving solutions from prayer requires that we are noticing and listening for them.

At this point in my life, I find myself in a rather curious predicament because my prevailing challenge has become "by when." My outer world demands a predictable time for manifestation and materialization. (It is like the weeks-long wait for a baby chick to crack its shell and become.) I have learned through experience that prediction is not one of my excellent skills. However, this is what the worlds' reality seems to demand of me.

I have a medical condition the medical profession label as Dystonia, which I have learned to live and cope with for over sixty years. I have discovered what works and does not work through these many years. I once asked my doctor, "What caused this condition?" And the best answer he could give me, at the time, was "Life."

Through prayer and asking for guidance, I have found my absolute best treatment has been learning to love myself and manage stress through meditation. I ask and let my I Am Self guide and teach me.

Set your goals for 2022, pray to believe and love yourself enough to let go and let God provide the demonstration. Let go of "by when" and know you will receive.

Love and light,
