“Celebrate endings – for they precede new beginnings.”

Author, Jonathan Lockwood Huie

The year 2023 is closing. Throughout the holidays I’ve been listening to some beautiful music. As I listened, an awareness dawned on me of the absolute creative power of Love! Taylor Swift said, “This is a new year. A new beginning. And things will change.” C.S. Lewis commented, “There are better things ahead than any we leave behind.” Craig D. Lounsborough noted, “The priceless lesson in the New Year is that endings birth beginnings and beginnings birth endings.”

It is time to open our hearts to new beginnings.

The man, Jesus, was turned over to Pontius Pilate by the Jews and crucified. Yet, his message of unconditional Love, redemption, and forgiveness was so strong that it spread worldwide. It gave birth to beautiful music, decorations, lights, traditions, and the power and presence of Divine Love, the birth of the Christ consciousness within.

Unconditional Love of the Christ consciousness is the message. We are privileged to have been awakened to our Christ Consciousness, which led to our spiritual transformation.

Begin January anew and see PEACE, LOVE, and JOY everywhere in this new year. Carry the power of this message in your heart, keep your thoughts positive, and enjoy all that the coming 2024 year has to offer.

Concentrate on that and let the world’s problems go by. Let’s channel the Love and the Light of Christ in all our affairs as often as possible and remain in the acceptance and consciousness of PEACE, LOVE, and JOY.

Blessings, Elizabeth Yacoubian,

“We must believe that faith is a luminous and self-creative energy. Spirit will not only make the gift, but It will also out of its own energy, out of Its own power, out of Its own Being, create the way, the method, and the means through which the gift is to come to us.”
